

<page_start no = 1>

<sol_start id=1>

1. The Left Atrium of heart receives oxygenated blood from lungs.

<sol_end>

<sol_start id=2>

2. The largest artery of human body is Aorta.

<sol_end>

<sol_start id=3>

3. The movement of food from leaves to other parts of plants is termed as translocation. Carbohydrates are produced in leaves, but parts of plants which can't perform photosynthesis also need carbohydrates so, to fulfil their requirements, translocation is performed.

<sol_end>

<page_end>

<page_start no = 2>

<sol_start id=4>

4. Three functions of lymph are :-

(1) It protects body from illness, i.e. Provide immunity.

(2) It helps in maintaining body fluid levels.

(3) It helps in removing cellular waste from body.

<sol_end>

<page_end>