

Q 4)

Ans) Three functions of lymph are:-

- 1) It protects body from illness, i.e. - provide immunity.
- 2) It helps in maintaining body fluid levels.
- 3) It helps in removing cellular waste from body.

Name - Shreyash-Harvyasi

Class - 10th

I.D. - 1002102416

Biology

Q1)

Ans) The Left Atrium of heart receives oxygenated blood from lungs.

Q2)

Ans) The largest artery of human body is Aorta.

Q3)

Ans) The movement of food from leaves to other parts of plants is termed as translocation. Carbohydrates are produced in leaves, so but parts of plants which can't perform photosynthesis also needs carbohydrates so, to fulfil their requirements, translocation is performed.